Gilbert Chahine is appointed Chief Executive Officer of AXA Partners

Gilbert Chahine is appointed Chief Executive Officer of AXA Partners, the entity of the AXA Group Innovation Business Unit dedicated to designing global insurance and assistance services solutions; to deploying them via the entities of the AXA Group and for business partners via third party distribution.

The appointment will be effective on June 1, 2018. Prior to this appointment, Gilbert Chahine was Chief Executive Officer of AXA Egypt.

Guillaume Borie, AXA Chief Group Innovation Officer welcomes this appointment: « I am delighted to welcome Gilbert Chahine as Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of AXA Partners, in the AXA Group Innovation Business Unit. AXA Partners is expected to play a key role in the design and deployment of insurance and associated services required to strengthen the role of insurers. We are in fact preparing to accelerate the implementation of the AXA strategy that consists in going from « payer to partner », as we deploy our innovative solutions to the largest number, and mainly in the sector of Healthcare, mobility, the collaborative economy and in support of our SME clients».

Before joining AXA Partners, Gilbert Chahine contributed to launching AXA's business in Egypt, where he was appointed Chief Executive Officer in 2016. He therefore brings his entrepreneurial spirit, pragmatic vision and his ambitions focused on a revisited and simplified client experience.

« I am proud to join the AXA Partners teams and am truly enthusiastic at the idea of stepping up to the challenges we will face together. With the strength of its global footprint, robust 2017 earnings and technological solutions that combine insurance, assistance and services, AXA Partners is focused on designing a revisited, simplified and innovative solution to enrich client experience». Gilbert Chahine, AXA Partners Chief Executive Officer.

Bio:

Prior to joining the AXA Group, Gilbert Chahine held positions as Audit Director specializing in the insurance sector at Mazars & Guerard (auditing firm).

Gilbert Chahine first joined the AXA Group in 2007 as V.P. in the Investors Relations Department, in charge of institutional investors and financial analysts' relations, as well as relations with AXA's rating agencies; he was also in charge of drafting the strategic and financial information for AXA's shareholders and financial market. He was later appointed V.P. as Financial Controller for the AXA Group's financial and consolidation reporting.

Between 2014 and 2016, he co-managed the implementation of AXA's establishment in Egypt by launching the Group's Healthcare and P&C business. In "entrepreneurial" mode, he contributed to the acquisition of a Life Insurance, Savings, Retirement and Integration leader active in all of these areas. In 2016, he was appointed Chief Executive Officer of AXA in Egypt. AXA Egypt is one of the leading insurance companies on the market with a team of 600 employees who protect over 1 million clients.

On June 1st 2018, he is appointed Chief Executive Officer of AXA Partners.

Gilbert Chahine is a graduate of SUPELEC, the Paris Higher Electricity School, specialized in Telecommunications engineering and of the Paris CEA (Actuarial Studies Center).
